

INVESTMENT INVENTORY

There is no such thing as an EXPENSE. Everything is an investment into something. Remember, consistency is KING. The small things you do consistently are greater than what you say from time to time.

Make an inventory on everything you bought in the past three days. List each purchase here:

–What did you invest in?

Repeat this process for your thoughts, emotions, words and actions

–What did you invest in?